Owing to an unavoidable absence of Miss Blanche V. Maxwell, a paper on "Our West Virginia Highways" was omitted from the program. Chocolate and wafers were served by the hostess during the afternoon from an attractive table in the dining room. Crispin carmelions adorned the floral decorations. Miss Emma Maxwell presided.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BELTS.
Separate belts, because of the revival of the normal waist line and the popularity of Russian blouse models, are very interesting at present. Mostly of leather, they show many combinations and widths, one particularly attractive model shows colored suede with insets of bright plaid ribbon. Often wide striped ribbon are used with brass buckles or a series of small straps, to make a belt. On sport suits one is more apt to find now the belt which lies close at the back and ends in sash ends which tie at the front. Sometimes these sash belts slip through a casing of the suit material at the sides. Belts on some coats do not button in the usual manner in front, but are twisted once or even twice before they are buttoned.

SEND WRONG BODY.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Mar. 13.—Miss Helen Elston Smith, of this city, niece of Mrs. Low Wallace and of Mrs. Henry S. Lane, both of whom were distinguished Crawfordsville women, had the unusual experience in New York City recently of finding the body of a French army officer in the coffin which was supposed to contain the body of a young woman friend whose death occurred in Europe. Miss Smith was in New York to await the arrival of the body of her friend. It is presumed that in some manner a mistake was made in the shipment of the coffin, and that Miss Smith's friend's body was buried in some part of war stricken France with military honors.

The man who discovered Pike's Peak said that it would never be climbed. Today the topmost point is accessible to automobiles.

OUT OF A CELL, MARRIED, AND GOES BACK TO JAIL.

DE BALB, Miss., Mar. 14.—A marriage of more than usual interest took place here when Levy W. McKee and Willie May Williamson were joined.

McKee was put in jail some time ago on the charge of having killed Jack Walter last March, having voluntarily surrendered some months after the crime was alleged to have been committed.

He was taken out of jail by a deputy sheriff and with the bride escorted in an automobile to near the home of the Rev. T. J. McClellan, who performed the ceremony. He was immediately taken back to jail.

MOVED IN FOLDING BED.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Mar. 14.—When the family moved Mrs. Floyd Steitberger, of Waverly, placed her month old baby in a folding bed. Movers closed up the bed and carted it away. Three hours later the mother found the child fast asleep and unharmed.

WOMAN RISKS HER LIFE TO SAVE HER PET DOG.

SAN BERNARDO, Cal., Mar. 14.—To save her pet dog Bubbles, now blind and deaf from age, Mrs. C. P. Stiles risked and almost lost her life in front of a fast train at Goffa, near Needles. When the woman saw her pet between the rails she dashed in front of the engine and grasped the animal. The pilot of the engine struck her and threw both the woman and the dog from the track. Neither was injured.
